MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Secretary
DCI Security Committee

FROM:

CIA Member, DCI Security Committee

SUBJECT: Annex A, DCID 1/14, Adjudication
Policy and Guidance

REFERENCE: Memo from Chairman, DCI Security Committee, dated 17 July 1979, same subject (SECOM-D-575)

In response to the referenced request from the Security Committee Chairman, Annex A has been reviewed. With the provision that the following changes be incorporated, the CIA concurs in the proposed draft:

a. Page 3, line 1 of paragraph 2; under the section entitled "Homosexuality and Sexual Perversion" - delete the phrase ". . . , except that which occurs within the marital bonds and in private, . . . ." Rationale - this clause is felt to be irrelevant.

b. Page 7, last sentence of the last paragraph, under the section entitled "Illegal Drugs and Drug Abuse" - change to read: "Moreover, repeated use, still in the experimental stage, of hard drugs would be disqualifying." Rationale - CIA, as a matter of policy, does not automatically disapprove an individual on the basis of one-time use of hallucinogens such as LSD. Recency of use is considered as a mitigating factor.
